November 25 - Day for the Elimination of Violence against Women

In recent years Australian attitudes to violence against women have changed greatly. Governments have strengthened laws and policing of domestic violence, and the #Me Too movement has drawn attention to the sexual abuse of women by powerful men. As a society we are still coming to terms with these changes.

The change in attitude reflects the recognition that behaviour, always thought to be wrong, is far more extensive and damaging to women than had previously been thought, and that consequently the task of changing it is far more urgent and difficult. Most people regarded domestic violence as wrong, but minimised the harm it caused and saw it as a problem only in dysfunctional families. They did not see it as their business to intervene when they saw evidence on their neighbour's face of beatings or heard cries at night. Police, too, were reluctant to get involved in 'domestics', believing that what was done in the family was generally best left to remain in the family.

These attitudes perhaps reflect an older unarticulated view that saw women as their husbands' possessions and so could be treated disrespectfully with impunity. In some societies this is still the operative view. Movements like #Me Too have reminded us that women are not playthings or slaves but people, that they have a voice and the right to raise it in outrage if they are badly treated, and that the bruises and scars left by assault do not fade with time but can corrode the spirit, destroying self-confidence, sense of self-worth and any larger view of human possibilities than physical survival.

As more women have spoken out we have all come to realise how widespread is violence against women, how it afflicts women in every sector of society and in every suburb, and what subtle forms it can take. It is an evil that as a society we must address.

The focus on domestic violence must remain on the women who are overwhelmingly its targets. But we must also see it as a human problem, affecting the relationships between men and women. From that perspective it is a men's problem. That violence against women flourishes means that men's understanding of women, their experience and their response to women are flawed. These flaws will begin in their understanding of themselves as men. These are the premises of The Men's Project at Jesuit Social Services, which seeks to explore the roots of men's violence and to help young men find a better way.

ENTRANCE ANTIPHON

Rv 5:12; 1:6

How worthy is the Lamb who was slain,
to receive power and divinity,
and wisdom and strength and honour.
To him belong glory and power for ever and ever.

GLORIA

Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace to people of good will. We praise you, we bless you, we adore you, we glorify you, we give you thanks for your great glory, Lord God, heavenly King, O God, almighty Father. Lord Jesus Christ, Only Begotten Son, Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father, you take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us; you take away the sins of the world, receive our prayer; you are seated at the right hand of the Father, have mercy on us. For you alone are the Holy One, you alone are the Lord, you alone are the Most High, Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit, in the glory of God the Father. Amen.

FIRST READING

Dn 7:13-14

A reading from the prophet Daniel
His sovereignty is eternal.

I gazed into the visions of the night.
And I saw, coming on the clouds of heaven,
one like a son of man.
He came to the one of great age
and was led into his presence.
On him was conferred sovereignty,
glory and kingship,
and men of all peoples, nations and languages became his servants.
His sovereignty is an eternal sovereignty which shall never pass away,
nor will his empire be destroyed.

The Word of the Lord.
Thanks be to God.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

Ps 92:1-2. 5. R.v.1

(R.) The Lord is king; he is robed in majesty.

Psalm: Chúa làm vua, Ngài đã mặc thiên oai.

1. The Lord is king, with majesty enrobed;
the Lord has robed himself with might,
he has girded himself with power. (R)
2. The world you made firm, not to be moved;
your throne has stood firm from of old.
From all eternity, O Lord, you are. (R)
3. Truly your decrees are to be trusted.
Holiness is fitting to your house,
O Lord, until the end of time. (R)

SECOND READING

Rv 1:5-8

A reading from the book of the Apocalypse
The ruler of the kings of the earth ... made us a line of kings, priests to serve his God.

Jesus Christ is the faithful witness, the First-born from the dead, the Ruler of the kings of the earth. He loves us and has washed away our sins with his blood, and made us a line of kings, priests to serve his God and Father; to him, then, be glory and power for ever and ever. Amen. It is he who is coming on the clouds; everyone will see him, even those who pierced him, and all the races of the earth will mourn over him. This is the truth. Amen. 'I am the Alpha and the Omega' says the Lord God, who is, who was, and who is to come, the Almighty.

The Word of the Lord.
Thanks be to God.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

Mk 11:9, 10

Alleluia, alleluia!

Blessed is he who inherits the kingdom of David our Father;
blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord.

Alleluia!

Alleluia, alleluia! - Chúc tụng Đấng nhân danh Chúa mà đến: chúc tụng nước Đavít tổ phụ chúng ta đã đến! - Alleluia.

GOSPEL

Jn 18:33-37

A reading from the holy Gospel according to John
You say that I am a king.

‘Are you the king of the Jews?’ Pilate asked. Jesus replied, ‘Do you ask this of your own accord, or have others spoken to you about me?’ Pilate answered, ‘Am I a Jew? It is your own people and the chief priests who have handed you over to me: what have you done?’ Jesus replied, ‘Mine is not a kingdom of this world; if my kingdom were of this world, my men would have fought to prevent my being surrendered to the Jews. But my kingdom is not of this kind.’ ‘So you are a king then?’ said Pilate. ‘It is you who say it’ answered Jesus. ‘Yes, I am a king. I was born for this, I came into the world for this: to bear witness to the truth; and all who are on the side of truth listen to my voice.’

The Gospel of the Lord.
Praise to you Lord Jesus Christ.

APOSTLES' CREED

I believe in God, the Father almighty, Creator of heaven and earth, and in Jesus Christ, his only Son, our Lord, who was conceived by the Holy Spirit, (ALL BOW) born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, died and was buried; he descended into hell; on the third day he rose again from the dead; he ascended into heaven, and is seated at the right hand of God the Father almighty; from there he will come to judge the living and the dead. I believe in the Holy Spirit, the holy Catholic Church, the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body, and life everlasting. Amen.

COMMUNION ANTIPHON

Ps 28:10-11

The Lord sits as King for ever.
The Lord will bless his people with peace.

PLENARY COUNCIL NEWS

Last Wednesday evening, a number of parishioners gathered to learn about the Plenary Council to be held in 2020. We listened to online presentations by Archbishop Timothy Costelloe, Archbishop Mark Coleridge and the Plenary Council Facilitator, Lana Turvey - Collins. We then spent some time in silent prayer reflecting on what was said and how we, as a parish, might respond to the central question, “What do you think God is asking of us in Australia at this time?”.

A lively discussion followed allowing those present to contribute their views and offer opinions. It was decided to convene a number of small groups where parishioners could meet to pray, listen and share their faith experience, hope and vision. If you would like to join (or form) a group, you would be most welcome. Leave your details with the Parish Office and we'll contact you.

In the meantime, you can learn about the Plenary Council on the website:

Information is available in a number of different languages on this site under Resources menu.

CHRISTMAS GIVING TREE

The Richmond Conference of the St Vincent de Paul Society is seeking donations of Christmas gifts for distribution to families and particularly children in the Richmond Area.

We are looking for Christmas foods and goodies for the families and kids that have little to enjoy. Gifts of toys, family passes to the movies, the aquarium, the zoo, etc. plus school materials, colouring pencils and stationary will be most gratefully received. Please take 'tags' from the Giving Trees at St James' and St Ignatius' churches for those that you can help make Christmas a little happier and more special for.

The tag identifies a girl or boy and the age bracket of the child. Please return your gift (with tag) to the churches and place in the boxes under the Giving Trees before or by Sunday 16th December 2018. Please do not wrap the gifts so that they can be sorted to avoid duplication in distribution.

Simply return your gift(s) with tag and place in boxes provided. The gifts will be included in Christmas stockings for distribution to the families.

Thank you for your support.
