

Trinity Catholic School is in the heart of Richmond and belongs to a worldwide network of over 2000 Jesuit institutions. It has a firm commitment to local community and strong partnerships with a number of leading Catholic secondary schools.

It is a source of pride to the parish that our school caters for students from many nationalities and cultural backgrounds. The school is a dynamic school inclusive of cultural diversity and embedded in Ignatian Spirituality. It reflects the ideals of Christ's teaching and promotes the Jesuit values of:

- Finding God's presence in all things
- A desire to reach one's fullest potential
- A lifelong love of learning
- Respect and care for self and others
- Developing confidence in one's own gifts and talents
- A commitment and involvement in the wider community and to building a more just society
