ENTRANCE ANTIPHON

Rv 5:12; 1:6

How worthy is the Lamb who was slain,
to receive power and divinity,
and wisdom and strength and honour.
To him belong glory and power for ever and ever.

GLORIA

Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace to people of good will. We praise you, we bless you, we adore you, we glorify you, we give you thanks for your great glory, Lord God, heavenly King, O God, almighty Father. Lord Jesus Christ, Only Begotten Son, Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father, you take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us; you take away the sins of the world, receive our prayer; you are seated at the right hand of the Father, have mercy on us. For you alone are the Holy One, you alone are the Lord, you alone are the Most High, Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit, in the glory of God the Father. Amen.

FIRST READING

Dn 7:13-14

A reading from the prophet Daniel

His sovereignty is eternal.

I gazed into the visions of the night.
And I saw, coming on the clouds of heaven,
one like a son of man.
He came to the one of great age
and was led into his presence.
On him was conferred sovereignty,
glory and kingship,
and men of all peoples, nations and languages became his servants.
His sovereignty is an eternal sovereignty which shall never pass away,
nor will his empire be destroyed.

The Word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

Ps 92:1-2. 5. R.v.1

(R.) The Lord is king;
he is robed in majesty.

1. The Lord is king, with majesty enrobed;
the Lord has robed himself with might,
he has girded himself with power. (R.)

2. The world you made firm, not to be moved;
your throne has stood firm from of old.
From all eternity, O Lord, you are. (R.)

3. Truly your decrees are to be trusted.
Holiness is fitting to your house,
O Lord, until the end of time. (R.)

SECOND READING

Rv 1:5-8

A reading from the book of the Apocalypse

The ruler of the kings of the earth ... made us a line of kings, priests to serve his God.

Jesus Christ is the faithful witness, the First-born from the dead, the Ruler of the kings of the earth. He loves us and has washed away our sins with his blood, and made us a line of kings, priests to serve his God and Father; to him, then, be glory and power for ever and ever. Amen. It is he who is coming on the clouds; everyone will see him, even those who pierced him, and all the races of the earth will mourn over him. This is the truth. Amen. 'I am the Alpha and the Omega' says the Lord God, who is, who was, and who is to come, the Almighty.

The Word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

Mk 11:9, 10

Alleluia, alleluia!
Blessed is he who inherits the kingdom of David our Father;
blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord.
Alleluia!

GOSPEL

Jn 18:33-37

A reading from the holy Gospel according to John

You say that I am a king.

'Are you the king of the Jews?' Pilate asked. Jesus replied, 'Do you ask this of your own accord, or have others spoken to you about me?' Pilate answered, 'Am I a Jew? It is your own people and the chief priests who have handed you over to me: what have you done?' Jesus replied, 'Mine is not a kingdom of this world; if my kingdom were of this world, my men would have fought to prevent my being surrendered to the Jews. But my kingdom is not of this kind.' 'So you are a king then?' said Pilate. 'It is you who say it' answered Jesus. 'Yes, I am a king. I was born for this, I came into the world for this: to bear witness to the truth; and all who are on the side of truth listen to my voice.’

The Gospel of the Lord.

Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

APOSTLES' CREED

I believe in God, the Father almighty, Creator of heaven and earth, and in Jesus Christ, his only Son, our Lord, who was conceived by the Holy Spirit, (ALL BOW) born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, died and was buried; he descended into hell; on the third day he rose again from the dead; he ascended into heaven, and is seated at the right hand of God the Father almighty; from there he will come to Judge the living and the dead. I believe in the Holy Spirit, the holy Catholic Church, the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body, and life everlasting. Amen.

COMMUNION ANTIPHON

Ps 28:10-11

The Lord sits as King for ever.

The Lord will bless his people with peace.

November 21: World Youth Sunday
World Day of Remembrance for Road Traffic Victims
World Television Day
Feast of Christ the King

World Youth Sunday is an annual Catholic celebration. It links the three-yearly International World Youth Day celebrations that have offered Popes the opportunity to mingle with young people and young people the opportunity to celebrate faith in their own idiom. The celebration reminds us that all young persons have their own distinctive gifts. It also invites us to reflect on what those gifts are and how they might share them in their church and world.

The other observances marked on Sunday, November 21 this year suggest different aspects of the meaning of World Youth Day. It is also the annual feast of Christ the King which Pope Pius XI instituted almost a century ago in the face of what he saw to be a growing atheism and secularism. The feast emphasised that faith is a personal commitment, and that Jesus is the leader whom we should follow. Though the royal image suggests pomp and ceremony, the feast is actually counter-cultural. When we think of Jesus as king, our image is that of a prisoner mocked by State forces by being dressed in a dirty cloak and bleeding from a crown of thorns hammered into his head.

Jesus as king identifies with the excluded and unjustly treated in our world, a reproach to brutal governments identified with their cruel dictator. Christ the King was the poor-man king whose life judged such powerful rulers as Stalin, Hitler, Mussolini and similar dictators of our day. World Youth Day is focused on Jesus, as that kind of king. It appeals to the courage and generosity of young people in accompanying people who are poor and neglected.

November 21 is also the World Day of Remembrance for the Victims of Traffic Accidents. This day appeals to the compassion of young people not only for those killed on the roads but also for those whose lives have been forever chained to pain, loss of movement and brain function as a result of accidents, and the many more parents, brothers and sisters, children and friends whose lives have also been deeply affected. This remembrance day reminds us, too, that far too many victims of accidents are themselves young people. Many, too, have been responsible for these accidents by dangerous driving and risk taking.

The readiness to take risks for love and high ideals is one of the most attractive qualities of young people when it is inspired by love and respect and is joined to common sense. It expresses itself in volunteering, and in gathering with friends to begin enterprises that seem impossible. We need to think only of Frederic Ozanam who joined a few other Paris students in founding the Vinnies. The Vannies began out of the same crazy-brave ventures of young people. This kind of risk taking lies at the heart of Christian faith and so of World Youth Day. And, of course, it echoes Jesus' life.

November 21, too, is World Television Day, which is such a central part of our culture both in providing entertainment and information and in its development into other digital media. In its derivation television means seeing what lies at a distance. By bringing us close to distant places and by allowing us to communicate face to face at a distance, television has changed our lives. For young people it is central. It is a great gift, but it can be superficial. World Youth Day reminds us of the importance of also seeing what lies deeper. It celebrates the skills and initiatives of young people with technology and invites them to explore the world in depth.

Finally, World Youth Day occurs in Social Inclusion Week, which invites us to build friendships that cross boundaries and bring strangers together. The large gatherings of people from many nations on International World Youth Days do this splendidly. The yearly celebration invites them to reach out beyond their close friends to people from different faiths, racial origins and walks of life. It is a day for listening as well as for speaking, for growing in a love that reaches out to all.
