31.7.22 EIGHTEENTH SUNDAY

IN ORDINARY TIME - YEAR C

FEAST OF SAINT IGNATIUS OF LOYOLA.

Today, we come together as a faith community to celebrate the Feast of St. Ignatius of Loyola, founder of the Society of Jesus.

The Ignatian Year also concludes today, 31 July. It began on 20 May 2021, the 500th anniversary of St. Ignatius Loyola's injury, which ultimately led to his conversion from soldier to saint.

We pray and give thanks for the legacy left to the Parish by previous Jesuit clergy who were appointed to serve the Richmond Catholic Parish, and the many parishioners who so generously contributed to the life of the parish since its beginning.

It is also an opportunity for us as parish community, to reflect on our commitment to and support of our parish, each other and our Parish Priest.

Like St. Ignatius, God continues to invite each of us into a deepening relationship, to ongoing conversion. We believe that by embracing this invitation, we embrace our God who calls us to act in new, audacious ways that reconcile our world, bringing about justice, peace and compassion, and fullness of life. We ask for the grace to see all things new in Christ.

Wishing you all a happy feast day.

A Jesuit Parish
Our Missions

We share responsibility to: Practise and promote gospel values, recognise and respond to the ever-changing needs of the community and foster a faith that leads to justice. As a parish open to change desiring to be a community, we strive to live the gospel values of: Diversity, Hospitality and Inclusivity.

*We respectfully ACKNOWLEDGE the Wurundjeri people of the Kulin nation,
as the traditional caretakers of the land which is the Richmond
Catholic Parish.
We acknowledge the Elders, past & present.
May we, too,
be good stewards
of this land.*

SAFETY OF CHILDREN & ALL
VULNERABLE PEOPLE

Richmond Catholic Parish hold the care, safety and wellbeing of children and all vulnerable people as a central and fundamental responsibility for our community.

MEDITATION ON GOD'S LOVE

*"I can do things you cannot, you can do things I cannot;
together we can do great things."*

GLORIA

Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace to people of good will. We praise you, we bless you, we adore you, we glorify you, we give you thanks for your great glory, Lord God, Heavenly King, O God, almighty Father. Lord Jesus Christ, Only Begotten Son, Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father, You take away the sin of the world, have mercy on us; You take away the sin of the world, receive our prayer; You are seated at the right hand of the Father, have mercy on us. For you alone are the Holy One; you alone are the Lord. You alone are the Most High, Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit, in the glory of God, the Father. Amen.

FIRST READING

Jer. 20: 7-9

There is something like a burning fire shut up in my bones.

O Lord, you have enticed me, and I was enticed; you have overpowered me, and you have prevailed.

I have become a laughingstock all day long; everyone mocks me.

⁸For whenever I speak, I must cry out,

I must shout, "Violence and destruction!"

For the word of the Lord has become for me a reproach and derision all day long.

⁹If I say, "I will not mention him, or speak any more in his name,"

then within me there is something like a burning fire shut up in my bones;

I am weary with holding it in, and I cannot.

The Word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

Ps. 34

Response: Taste and see that the Lord is good.

1. I will bless the Lord at all times;
his praise shall continually be in my mouth.
My soul makes its boast in the Lord;
let the humble hear and be glad.

2. Glorify the LORD with me;
Together let us praise his name.
I sought the LORD, and he answered me;
From all my terrors he set me free.

3. Look toward him and be radiant;
Let your faces not be abashed.
This lowly one called; the LORD heard,
And rescued him from all his distress.

4. The angel of the LORD is encamped
Around those who fear him, to rescue them.
Taste and see that the LORD is good.
Blessed the man who seeks refuge in him.

5. Fear the LORD, you his holy ones.
They lack nothing, those who fear him.
The rich suffer want and go hungry,
But those who seek the LORD lack no blessings.

SECOND READING

1. Cor 10:31

Do everything for the glory of God.

Brothers and Sisters:

Whether you eat or drink, or whatever you do, do everything for the glory of God. Give no offence to Jews or to Greeks or to the church of God, just as I try to please everyone in everything I do, not seeking my own advantage, but that of many, so that they may be saved. Be imitators of me, as I am of Christ.

The Word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

Alleluia, alleluia!

Blessed are the poor in spirit,

For theirs is the kingdom of heaven.

Alleluia!

GOSPEL

Luke 14: 25-33

None of you can become my disciple if you do not give up all your possessions.

Large crowds were traveling with Jesus; and he turned and said to them: "Whoever comes to me and does not hate father and mother, wife and children, brothers and sisters, yes, and even life itself, cannot be my disciple. Whoever does not carry the cross and follow me cannot be my disciple. For which of you, intending to build a tower, does not first sit down and estimate the cost, to see whether he has enough to complete it? Otherwise, when he has laid a foundation and is not able to finish, all who see it will begin to ridicule him, saying, 'This fellow began to build and was not able to finish.' Or what king, going out to wage war against another king, will not sit down first and consider whether he is able with ten thousand to oppose the one who comes against him with twenty thousand? If he cannot, then, while the other is still far away, he sends a delegation and asks for the terms of peace. So therefore, none of you can become my disciple if you do not give up all your possessions.

The Gospel of the Lord.

Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

APOSTLES' CREED

I believe in God, the Father almighty, Creator of heaven and earth, and in Jesus Christ, his only Son, our Lord, who was conceived by the Holy Spirit, (ALL BOW) born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, died and was buried; he descended into hell; on the third day he rose again from the dead; he ascended into heaven, and is seated at the right hand of God the Father almighty; from there he will come to judge the living and the dead. I believe in the Holy Spirit, the holy Catholic Church, the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body, and life everlasting. Amen

July 31: St Ignatius Day

End of Ignatian Year.

Fr. Andrew Hamilton SJ

One of the most striking images of St Ignatius represents him leaning forward as if into a strong wind with one foot raised. It echoes a letter in which Ignatius says that a Jesuit is one who is to live 'always with one foot raised, ready to hasten from one place to another, in accordance with our vocation and our Institute.'

This is an appropriate image to end the Ignatian Year. It recalled the wounding in battle and convalescence that led to Ignatius' personal conversion and to the founding of the Jesuits. After his leg healed Ignatius began his pilgrim years walking through Spain on a journey with many diversions, but with his heart fixed on accepting where God was leading him, that took him finally to Rome.

The image of Ignatius walking with one foot raised is precious to us at Jesuit Social Services We who inherit his tradition will also continue walking on a journey whose windings only God know, always with one foot raised, responsive to the changes in terrain and climate.

The image of walking is challenging. It indicates vulnerability to weather, to terrain without sure shelter, to travel without a carriage for cover or for speed, to all the people threatening or welcoming met along the way, to going on a wing and a prayer. It is also a step forward into a world that is never fully mapped, which leads out of a world in which one is comfortable.

The image of the raised foot also suggests attentiveness to where we are placing our feet, to the path and its direction. It is an image of constant discernment, reflecting on where we have come from and where we are called to go, noticing the world around us, the flow of fellow travellers, the inns and hostelries along the way. The needs of the world around us shape our journey.

For Ignatius and the Jesuits the walking always leads to God and involves the following of Jesus. His journey through Galilee and Judaea always took him to people who were in great need and to homes that were receptive to his word. It also took him into conflict with the centres of power and eventually to a journey out of Jerusalem, beaten and carrying the cross to which he would be nailed, a final walk on which he struggled to raise either foot.

For those who inherit the Ignatian tradition, without necessarily inheriting the faith in the God of Jesus Christ which was central to Ignatius, the image of the one foot raised suggests an urgency in our commitment to our fellow human beings that shapes our hearts and what we seek in our work. It suggests both a reflectiveness that keeps in mind what we seek for the people for whom we work and a flexibility in adapting our ways of working and our attachments to meet new needs and new circumstances. All that suggests courage in recognising and responding to the unknown, adaptability, and companionship in recognising ourselves as one part of a shared mission where people always have one foot raised.

And finally, the image of walking is an image of freedom. Of freedom from compulsion and of friendship in a common mission gratefully accepted.
